

PACALIS® associates

Knowledge & Experience Working Together

associate biography

Professor Paul Rogers

Associate

PACALIS

Paul Rogers is a leading academic on international security, he is a Professor of Peace Studies at Bradford University.

Originally working in the biological and environmental sciences, including lecturing at Imperial College, London, Paul has worked for the past 30 years on international security. He is a consultant to Oxford Research Group, an independent UK think tank, and also writes a weekly analysis of international security issues for Open Democracy, the web based UK educational not-for-profit resource, which has been supported by a number of Trusts and Foundations as well as individuals since 2001.

Of his 26 books, the most recent are Global Security and the War on Terror: Elite Security and the Illusion of Control (2007), and Why We're Losing the War on Terror, (2008).

He is regular advisor to government and the public and private sector. He is a regular broadcaster on BBC World Service, Radio France International and other networks.